

Style:

By connecting many different musical styles with a high technical ambition, combined with variable, emotional vocals COMPLEX 7 create their very own kind of progressive metal. But even though the songs are much heavier than most of today's releases in this genre, "PROCESS" also shows the rocking side of COMPLEX 7.

History:

COMPLEX 7 has been founded in 1999 and the line-up is still as it has been back then. The recordings for the self-financed debut-cd "WATER" started in the fall of 2000 and it gained very positive resonance worldwide after its release in July 2001. The music of "WATER" has got a lot of airplay in national and also international radiostations.

Besides the bands online-store, through reviews in magazines, at concerts and cd-shops many cd's have been sold via different mailorders (e.g. Rising Sun). With the song "Time-Place-Insanity" COMPLEX 7 took part at the "The Reaper Comes II"-sampler. After having spent a long time with serious working the second self-financed production "PROCESS" is available since 1st November 2003. By presenting it to public for the first time at the "Drum-Demo-Listening-Session" (organized by MoStar-Productions) on 8th November 2003 "PROCESS" won 4th place out of several hundreds of bands, the same as "WATER" did in 2002.

Band:

Norbert Vornam (Vocals)
Arne Schuppner (Guitar, Backing Vocals)
Björn Müller (Bass, Backing Vocals)
Guido Schneider (Drums)

Discography:

"PROCESS" (2003) 8 songs, 43 min, self-financed (9,- /US$ + p&p)
"WATER" (2001) 12 songs, 66 min, self-financed (6,- /US$ + p&p)
